To break the rigors of training, members of the Canadian Air Force at Camp Borden recently staged a Odithopian pageant.

4,400,000 ARE ENTITLED TO CAST BALLOTS

Party Leaders Expecting Heavy Vote in Today's Election

OTTAWA, Sept. 14.—Canadian electors will decide today who their representatives will be in the fifteenth parliament. Approximately 4,400,000 persons it is estimated, will be entitled to vote.

Monday night Premier Arthur Meighen and Lt. Hon. W. L. MacKenzie, leader of the Liberal party, and the first two candidates of the respective campaigns and to-day the leaders of the other parties will determine whether the Conservatives or the Liberal party will be in the upper house next session.

Comments. Both leaders have predicted a campaign.

The campaign has extended over several months, but the main battles will be fought in the last week of the election, every province. The only part of the Dominion they did not touch is the Yukon.

The approximate number of voters at the general election last fall was 2,200,000, representing about sixty-six per cent. of those who were eligible to vote.

Vote Analyzed

An analysis of the results of the popular vote last fall shows the following: Liberals, 1,566,634; Conservatives, 1,035,600; Progressives, 592; Independents, 62; and Labor, 62,214.

The campaign started at eight o'clock this morning standard time, or nine eastern time, and the election organizations were expecting a heavy turnout.

While the election act contains many provisions, generally speaking, every British citizen 21 years of age or older has the right to vote in Canada prior to Oct. 20, on which date the election writs were issued, is entitled to vote.

DUCK HUNTERS WILL GO OVER TOP SEPT. 15

Birds Reported Plentiful In Alberta—Prospects Bright

At sunrise, tomorrow, has been forecast by Generalissimo Game Guardian Benjamin Lawton as three hours for one of the greatest hunting seasons in Alberta history. The Spanish and Mexican bird-surrendering contests, Mexican Central Bureau conflicts will pale when Mr. Lawton declares the duck shooting season open and unearths the bodies of sportmen to go over the top in the search of the coveted birds.

General orders have been issued that the apertures are to be limited to 25 birds each day, or 100 birds a day, or 250 birds a day, or 75 Hungarian partridges, or 75 on the second, 25 mallards and coots on the third, 25 teal and coots on the fourth.

There is no limit on the number of grouse.

It has been decreed that hunting ever closed in lands without the permission of the owners will be illegal. The sale of game is prohibited and the sale of game meat to persons in bird sanctuaries will not take place.

Warning is also given to the commercial hunters that they must obtain a license for hunting.

The demand for licenses has been increased to 100,000, and the cost of a license this morning is 10 cents. As license fees are not yet in effect, the government has not estimated the number of hunters.

Birds Plentiful

Birds are reported plentiful throughout the province. Since the heavy rains of recent days, the birds have shifted up slopes and given the birds ample choice of feeding places.

KILLED IN RUNAWAY

SIMPSON, Sask., Sept. 14.—Berroycroft, a young farmer four miles from town, was killed when his team ran away while attempting to hitch it to a grain train Monday afternoon.

There is no record of such cases.

It is believed that the man was the cause we would have thousands of dollars worth of damage.

Queen of the Flickers

Eight moving pictures filmed in the last seven months have had the advantage of the star acting. Now, however, it is shown at a long run, and there ought not to require much��e to see her appearance to insure the success of a picture.

Mayor Voted Blatchford And Was First at Poll

Somebody's Going to Get Snowed Under is the Cheerful Philosophy of East Edmonton Candidate

Mr. Blatchford was the first elector to cast a ballot in poll No. 72, his own home poll, close to his residence in the East End. This poll was the first to be opened in the city, and he expressed the belief that it would again give him a majority today.

"Somebody's going to get snowed under," he said, "but I hope it will be me." He was smiling broadly as he greeted the poll officials.

"I'm the only one who wants to be Blatchford," he laughed in reply to a question as to how he voted when he was a candidate.

The mayor is winding up his campaign with a strenuous day, travelling around the various polls in his district.

BOARD PUTS UP BARS AGAINST NON-RESIDENTS

Nobody was disenchanted in reason by reason of being kept in.

Additional non-residents are being admitted from Edmonton High Schools, according to a decision made by the Edmonton Board of Education. The board unanimously adopted a motion to assist the young students of more non-resident students. These students are to be admitted to the same high schools as the regular students.

The demand for licenses has been increased to 100,000, and the cost of a license this morning is 10 cents. As license fees are not yet in effect, the government has not estimated the number of hunters.

STEVENS AIDS BOOZE BARONS CARSON CLAIMS

Exclusive to Bulletin

TORONTO, Sept. 14.—Another victory for the liquor barons was won yesterday when President J. H. Carson and Secretary H. H. Spence of the Dominion Alcoholic Beverage Control Association, attacking Hon. H. H. Stevens and his bill to prohibit the sale of beer, were defeated by the issuance of an order allowing the sale of beer in bags, to be enclosed in bags with labels.

The statements say that this order is directly aimed at assisting illegal operators, and that the bill, introduced by Mr. Meighen and Mr. Stevens so bitterly, will not be passed. They say that even if it is, they are worse now than ever.

Under the new law, beer may be sold in bags, under the supervision of government inspectors, and the export of beer to foreign countries is prohibited.

The statement quotes Mr. Carson:

They Admit Mr. Meighen Can't Win

Premier Meighen has based his campaign on the claim that Canada needs stable Government. It does.

Meighen disputes yesterday represented the calculations at Mr. Meighen's political headquarters as claiming that 115 members and supporters of the Government are likely to be elected.

There are 245 members of the Parliament of Canada. A division of 115 would leave the Mackenzie King Government holding 127 members of other groups; Liberals, Progressives, Laborites and Independents.

The Board of Trade says it does not hope for stable government from Premier Meighen. The reason is for a minority Government, keeping itself in power by bargaining for the votes of members belonging to groups whose principles have nothing in common with Mr. Meighen's policy.

On the showing of his own party directors, declared on the eve of election, stable Government under Mr. Meighen is impossible; the utmost they anticipate is that he might be able to carry on for a time by "trucking and trading"—with another Parliamentary deadlock, and another general election.

If Mr. Meighen's political prospects know where they stand, the one chance for stable government lies in the return of the Mackenzie King Government supported by a Parliamentary majority pledged to a WESTERN POLICY.

The League Is a Gainer

Canada is paying good money to help maintain an international association which it believes can function as a powerful factor in removing causes of friction and lessening the likelihood of war.

Canadian tax-payers are therefore interested directly, as well as indirectly, in any change in the composition of the League of Nations which appears to affect its capacity to achieve peace.

Germany has joined the League after a good deal of urging, and Spain has quit after more urging to remain in its presence was worth.

The League gains more in standing and influence by the exchange that it loses. Germany could imperil the peace of Europe tomorrow by shifting its aims and policies. Western front Span could hardly send a thrill along the diplomatic nerves of the continent if it tried.

The presence of German delegates at Geneva cannot guarantee peace in Europe. Nothing but international good will can do that. But the presence of German representatives in Geneva, and their sharp use of international trouble, should help to strengthen that good will, while their continued absence was a cause of suspicion and an opportunity for misunderstanding.

Spain's membership in the League was an insurance policy for itself, rather than for its neighbors. If it prefers to take chances outside, the members nations need not worry.

All But a Parallel

Mussolini declares that the plot to assassinate him was hatched on French soil, and in a speech with high explosive language he demands that Italy's neighbors put an end to such conspiracies against its Government and its public order.

It is pertinent to recall that the Great War began because Austria claimed that the plot to assassinate the Arch Duke was formed in Serbia and demanded its right to see what the murder of the Arch Duke was planned in France.

The first plot succeeded. The other failed. That fact marks the difference between the situation in the Balkans in 1914 and the situation in which Italy and France find themselves today. Had Mussolini been killed, as the Arch Duke was, he would have had no opportunity almost as close to an occurrence parallel in almost every particular to that which precipitated the four years of horror.

Poll Your Vote

For man and every woman who is entitled to vote should get to the polling booth before closing hour and cast a ballot.

The interests of the country demand that the collective judgement of its citizens be given to day to the task of electing men and women of a new Parliament and deciding what policies shall determine the course of our national affairs.

It is said that in a democratic country people get as good government as they deserve. What kind of government has any man or woman a right to expect if he or she deliberately refuses to exercise his or her vote a kind of government is wanted?

The duty to vote is in peace time the most serious responsibility of citizenship. That responsibility cannot be shirked. The man who stays away from the poll does not thereby free himself of accountability if mis-government, dishonest government or mis-directed government follows.

Government of the people by the people would be impossible if nobody voted. It is actually impossible in proportion as qualified electors fail to exercise their franchise.

The voter who does not care thereby consents to be "bossed by his neighbors" in regard to every matter which may be affected by public policy, law or administration. Practically the non-voter might as well live under a benevolent autocracy as under a bad one he would raise if he but did that!

It is a high privilege, a public duty, and an exercise of governing power to go to the polls and vote.

The experiments of the various elements are infinite and their products stagger the imagination. Some day or other the gasoline will give up and we will have to turn to other substances or look to the chemist for his substance for starting our engines.

CAMPAIGN IN WEST PROVES NOTABLE ONE

Associated Press
WINNIPEG, Sept. 14.—After one of the most intensive campaigns in the history of the west, which involved the attendance at all the hundreds of public meetings, created an interest greater than has prevailed for many a day, one hundred and nineteen candidates are seeking election in the prairie provinces. Saskatchewan 47 and Alberta 37.

In Manitoba, A. L. Beauchamp, Liberal, was re-elected unopposed.

Campaign Notes:
Many newsmen contributed to making the campaign just closed a most interesting one. The most active section on the part of the women electors, joint debates which placed women in the foreground, and gone by were revived, and the radio has been used extensively by all candidates.

In the race of 1922, Manitoba sent two Liberal and Conservative, seven Progressives and two Labor, a total of seventeen seats. Of the entire field this year, so far, there are five Liberals; 16 Conservatives, 10 Progressives, one Liberal-Progressive, one Liberal-Labor-Progressive, and four Labor nominees. The Progressive and Labor nominees are Liberal candidates opposing a Progressive.

In Portage La Prairie, Premier Sir John Diefenbaker and George Pearson, with another outstanding Conservative candidate in Hon. H. C. G. Ross, a former cabinet member opposed by Alderman J. R. Macmillan, Liberal, D. W. Beauford, Progressive, and opposed to Robert Potts, former leader of the Progressive party, and the candidacy of Brandon. There will be three triangular contests in the north, Brandon, Dauphin, and Winnipeg North. In Winnipeg North, A. E. Ross, former Progressive, now represents Labor in the last house, has opposition in Dr. C. B. McNaughton, Liberal, and Mrs. McNaughton, Progressive.

The election of Liberal-Progressive candidates in the province is being watched with keen interest by the followers of politicians here.

MUSSOLINI IS NOT WORRYING

Associated Press
ROME, Sept. 14.—Premier Mussolini is not worried over the projects he has on his hands, that he will die a natural death.

The Italian premier, Robert H. Taft, of the New York Sun, who has been in Rome since Saturday's attempt on the life of Mussolini, says:

"Mussolini is in the very command of the Catholic police from whom he has received no information as to what I call my friend's fate. There is no need. My star projects me as Italy is progressing under his leadership. As I live now there must be adventure and I must be free to come and go among the people, always in my people."

BULL FIGHTER BADLY CORED

Associated Press
SAN ANTONIO, Texas, Sept. 14.—Juan Silvestre, Mexico's most famous matador, may have fought his last bull fight.

On the eve of his retirement, Silvestre, called "Without Fear," was wounded in the eye by a bullet at Laredo. Just as he poised his blade and prepared to spear the bull, the animal charged, driving the matador to the ground and goring him. After a long and painful operation, it was announced that his condition was improved, but that he still was in danger.

The pageant of royalty, two-year-old Extra Mills (left) established a precedent among baby-baby maidens by carrying a doll instead of a midget. Norma Drayer, 4, of Elizabeth, N.J., (center) would have delighted the judges if she had been a baby. ## BOY AND GIRL SAVE 7 LIVES

Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—A 16-year-old boy and his 16-year-old sister, both fully clothed, raced three miles through the waves Sunday to save seven drowning men, including other men whose boating boat had overturned.

Boats along the beach were started, when they saw the lad, John T. Thompson, and his sister, Edith, 14, swim toward their parents.

"My father and other men are clinging to an overturned boat about 100 yards from shore," said Harry. His sister landed shortly.

When the guards reached the boat, the boy and girl were clinging to the upturned keel. William J. Hendon, father of Tom and Edith, said his son could have held on much longer.

The meeting followed a parade in the town on Pennsylvania Avenue in a little more than a year.

B.C. Varsity May Have Home Economics Course

P. T. A. Will Start Drive for $80,000 With This End in View

Canadian Press

MONTREAL, Sept. 14.—"Given the present economic situation, training can bring up a family with consummate skill in a number of useful arts," said Mrs. H. D. Young, convenor of the education committee, in her report. "The university should be given to women fitted by training in the building of traditional lines, courses in opportunities of research along feminine lines." Soon the housewives will be invited to "Keep House With a Can-Opener."

A woman's home economics course would spend 90 per cent of the time of the students on their affairs. A woman's education should include training for work as purchasing agent in the purchasing department of a house.

Citing the fact that the University of B.C. has no course leading to the degree of B.Sc. in nursing, the first of its kind in Canada, she said, "at the present time so far there is no home economics course available, but it is anticipated, for it, but the university is young and has very large student body. At present, the governors will start no new thing until next year."

The Provincial Parent-Teachers Association has voted to contribute $10,000 to endow a chair of home economics and will begin a drive this month.
